

Arbovirus Surveillance Program
Massachusetts Department of Public Health
Infectious Diseases Laboratory Division
State Laboratory Institute

Date: November 17, 2000

To date 447 West Nile virus-infected birds have been found in Massachusetts. The following 94 cities and towns submitted dead birds that tested positive:

Abington	Dedham	Lynn	Salem
Acushnet	Dudley	Malden	Rockland
Andover	Duxbury	Marion	Scituate
Arlington	EastBridgewater	Marshfield	Seekonk
Barnstable	Easton	Mattapoisett	Shrewsbury
Bedford	Fairhaven	Medford	South Hadley
Belmont	Fall River	Middleborough	Springfield
Beverly	Foxboro	Middleton	Stoughton
Billerica	Framingham	Millville	Swampscott
Blackstone	Franklin	Nantucket	Tewksbury
Bolton	Freetown	Natick	Topsfield
Boston	Groton	Needham	Upton
Boxford	Halifax	New Bedford	Walpole
Braintree	Hampden	Newton	Waltham
Bridgewater	Hanson	North Andover	Watertown
Brockton	Hingham	Northboro	Wellesley
Brookline	Holbrook	Norton	WestSpringfield
Burlington	Holliston	Norwell	Westboro
Cambridge	Hopkinton	Oxford	Westfield
Carlisle	Hull	Palmer	Weymouth
Chicoppe	Lakeville	Peabody	Wilbraham
Cohasset	Lexington	Plympton	Wrentham
Concord	Lowell	Randolph
Dartmouth	Ludlow	Rochester	